KORNER'S BATTLE PRAYER.

Father, I call on thee!
Round me the cannon (thick smoke is pouring);
Round me, slaying, the volley is roaring;
Ruler of battles, I call on thee!
Father, oh guide thou me!

Father, oh guide thou me!
Guide me to triumph, to death do thou guide me;
Lord, I acknowledge thee; stand thou beside me;
Lord, as thou wilt, so guide thou me!
God, I acknowledge thee!

God, I acknowledge thee!
When breezes through dry leaves in autumn are sighing,
When rages the battle's dread storm o'er the dying;
Fountain of goodness, I bow to thee!
Father, oh bless thou me!

Father, oh bless thou me!
Thine is my life; to thy hand I commend it;
Thy favor bestow'd; thy power on me;
Then, in living or dying, bless thou me!
Father, all praise to thee!

Father, all praise to thee!
Not now for earth's vain goods contend we;
Our holiest rights with our sacred dearest we;
Then, in triumph or death, give praise to thee;
I give myself to thee!

I give myself to thee!
When death doth meet me, in thunder is ringing,
When life's falling stream from my veins is gushing,
My God, I resign myself to thee!
Father, I call on thee!

Perils of Chamois Hunting.

Three experienced shots of Appenzell were hunting on the Gloggeren, that lofty wall rising southeast from the See Alp, which one passes on the way from Weissbad, over the Meglis Alp. One of them went by this lower path, a second higher up over Marwies, and the third hunter over a narrow grassy ledge. The highest and lowest had easier going, and came earlier to the place where the combined shooting was to begin. The first saw the beasts coming to him, coming directly towards his rifle, and waited, looking out constantly for the third, who was driving them along the grass ledge. The chamois came gradually nearer; he is afraid of losing his shot, lies in a state of feverish excitement, fires, and, frightened at the report, the beasts turn and fly hurriedly along the ledge, the same way they had come. Just at a narrow sloping place where it bends round a projecting rock, they come in their wild, east flight upon the hunter, climbing toilsomely upward.

If the two parties had met upright on this giddy rim of the rock, the hunter must infallibly have been dashed over the cliff sinking far more than one hundred feet, as the chamois would instinctively, in the agony of despair, have tried to squeeze themselves between the rock and the hunter. The man prudently observed this, and to save his life, threw himself down and let the whole herd rush at a flying leap over him. Another hunter in Glarus, in a similar position, at a critical place, thought that he might secure his booty by a quick resolve, and covered down sitting, wedged firmly against a rock and shot. The charge missed, the chamois jumped over him, but touched him in his bounding elastic spring with one of his hind hoofs on the jacket, and tore its highest button-hole; a bestialation would have infallibly sent both over a crushing fall.

WHISKY AND NEWSPAPERS.—A glass of whisky is manufactured from, perhaps, a dozen grains of corn, the value of which is too small to be estimated. A pint of this mixture sells for one shilling, and if of a good brand, is considered well worth the money. It is drunk in a minute or two. It fires the brain, sharpens the appetite, deranges and weakens the physical system. On the same sideboard upon which this delicious beverage is served lies a newspaper. It is covered with half a million of types—it brings intelligence from the four quarters of the globe. The newspaper costs less than the glass of grog, the juice of a few grains of corn; but it is no less strange than true that there is a large portion of the community who think corn-juice cheap and the newspaper dear! Scientific American.

It is proposed to have a railroad ferry boat across the British channel from Dover to Calais. It is to be 3,000 feet long. It will run at a speed of 40 miles an hour, have rudders at both ends, be built of a series of fluted iron tubes, and have a covered iron tunnel in the centre into which the trains will be run.

The following promotions have been made by the President: Colonel A. Mohr of the 26th Ohio, and Col. Lytle of the 10th Ohio, Brigadier-Generals. Brigadier-General Hartsuff of Michigan, distinguished at South Mountain, to be Major-General.

SENTENCED FOR LIFE.—Thomas Urie, of Wellsville, Ohio, convicted of murder in the second degree, in killing David Wright, has been sentenced to the penitentiary for life.

DECEASED.—Alexander Hambleton, Esq., a young member of the bar of Easton, Md., died on the 25th ult. He was a son of Col. Sam. Hambleton.

It is stated that Admiral Milne, commander of the British North American squadron, is on a cruise in search of the privateer Alabama.

Hugh B. Mackey, Esq., of Woodlawn, Cecil county, Md., died on the 22d ult., aged fifty-four years.
